George Bladen, of 1375 F Street north-est, was knocked from his bicycle by street car, and rendered unconscious. e was taken to Casualty Hospital.

To Marshall Hall.

Those who have never enjoyed planked shad at Marshall Hall would do well to spend tomorrow at this beautiful resort. Planked shad dinner, including the famous Marshall Hall clam chowder, will be served on the arrival of the boat. Everything is nicely cooked and served, and there is always an abundance of good things on the menu. The sail up the river in the cool of the evening is certainly not the least enjoyable part of the entire trip. Steamer Charles Macalester will leave Seventh Street wharf to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. The ladies are especially invited on these excursions.
